Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

John Warkentin is a geographer, teacher and photographer. Born at Lowe Farm, Manitoba, he received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Manitoba in 1948 and a PhD from the University of Toronto in 1961. He was an Assistant Professor of Geography at the University of Manitoba, engaged in research on the settlement and regional geography of Western Canada, and also taught briefly in Newfoundland and Greenland. In 1963 he became an Assistant Professor at York University. Dr. Warkentin taught at York University until he retired as Professor of Geography in 1993. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, and an Officer of the Order of Canada.

Professor Warkentin is the author of "The Western Interior of Canada" (1964), and co-author with Dr. Richard I. Ruggles of "The Historical Atlas of Manitoba", published by the Manitoba Historical Society. He has also published text books on the historical geography of Canada, and more recently on public monuments in Toronto.

Accession: 2006-033 - Accession 2006-033

Title: Accession 2006-033

ID: 2006-033

Date: 1951-2000 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

Accession consists of colour slides showing rural and urban conditions across Canada and particularly in Ontario that were photography by John Warkentin for use in his lectures and publications.

Physical description: 12,455 photographs : col. ; 35 mm slides

Note [generalNote]:

Arrangement note provided by donor. Slides are annotated by location and date of photograph.

Arrangement:

Accession arranged by donor. Canada slides are arranged by 39 regions east to west across Canada, followed by northern Canada, as depicted in John Warkentin, "A Regional Geography of Canada: Life, Land, and Space" (2000), pp. 186-7. Within each region the slides were arranged approximately from wild to rural to urban landscapes, but through use the arranged became slightly disorganized. The Ontario slides are arranged by country, from southwestern to southeastern Ontario, followed by northern Ontario. For each county, the slides are subdivided into rural and urban.

Accession: 2011-007 - Accession 2011-007

Title: Accession 2011-007

ID: 2011-007

Date: [196-]-2010 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

Accession consists of photographs of public art and monuments in Toronto taken by John Warkentin using 35 mm colour transparencies while conducting research for his book, "Creating memory: a guide to outdoor public sculpture in Toronto" (2010), as well as clippings from newspapers and magazines and government documents compiled by Professor Warkentin between 1984 and 2010 to provide contextual information for the book.

Physical description: ca. 0.4 m of textual records
ca. 2,354 photographs : col. ; 35 mm slides

Note [generalNote]:

Each slide is numbered by Professor Warkentin, the first number refers to the map number in the book, "Creating memory," and the second to the site number. If there is more than one photograph of each sculpture, often taken years apart, the slides of each sculpture are arranged chronologically. Some photographs show the area near a particular sculpture, and not necessarily the sculpture itself. These slides are given the additional identifier "C", for context. Some photographs are of sculptures erected since the book was published, and so are not described in the volume. These are placed under the appropriate MAP (site) and labelled by map number and the letters "AD", for additional.

Title: Accession 2023-007

ID: 2023-007

Date: [198-]-1992, 2023 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

Accession consists of a typescript manuscript, "Geographical Guide to Ontario," written by John Warkentin from the late 1980s to 1991, preceded by a summary of the project prepared by Professor Warkentin in March 2023. The manuscript is an impressionistic description of the province based on his field observations, emphasizing physical, urban, and rural landscapes of Ontario, its economic infrastructure, and interrelationships. The manuscript consists of 1,100 pages with 278 maps and 41 tables.
